We are so thankful that you have made the courageous choice to bring your baby into this world. Your bravery shows the outstanding character within you. We hope that you have some special people surrounding you, supporting you and loving you.
We believe strongly in faith and family and hold these central in our lives. We feel that our greatest responsibility as parents is to ensure that our children know God and know that they are deeply loved by us.

As we bring a new baby into our home, we want you to know that we will provide unconditional love. As the child grows, we will continue to teach values of honesty, generosity, and caring for others. We also look forward to offering opportunities for adventure and development of their own personal talents.

We believe in giving children lots of attention, teaching them responsibilities and teaching them to grow up to be people who make this world a better place.

We hope for peace in your heart.

Dear Baby,

I am so excited to have a new baby sister! I can't wait to meet you. I love you already and I hope that the Lord leads us to you quickly. We are going to have so much fun together. God Bless You!

Love Rachel

Dear Baby,

I am your big brother Andrew. I am very excited to have you as my sister. It's going to be so much fun helping to take care of you and it's also going to be fun playing with you - pushing you in the stroller and making you laugh. Some day when you get older I will teach you how to play baseball.

I can hardly wait to see you in your special room. Most important of all, I will tell you about Jesus and His Love.

Love Andrew

Dear Baby,

This is Keagan. I am your new big brother. I am going to help Mom and Dad take care of you and keep you happy.

When you are older, we will play together and it will be so much fun. We will laugh a lot.

I love you!

Love Keagan
